

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

Rehabilitation & Transition Conference

Date: March 21 - 23, 2007

Site: The American Club, Kohler, WI

About the conference:

PARTNERS: Rehabilitation For Wisconsin, Inc.; Wisconsin Rehabilitation Association; Goodwill Industries of Southcentral Wisconsin, Inc.; The Threshold, Inc.; Independence First; CESA #3; Waukesha County Technical College; Madison Area Technical College; Department of Public Instruction; Riverfront, Inc.; Aspiro; Diverse Options, Inc.; Stout Vocational Rehabilitation Institute; Department of Workforce Development

CONCEPT: This annual event has become Wisconsin's premiere conference for rehabilitation professionals. Conference attendees come from public and private organizations and include case managers, therapists, placement specialists, educators, community mental health providers, direct service staff, school-to-work transition councilors, and administrators. This three-day conference features seven different tracks and offers sessions for employees at every level. Presenting at the conference is a professional hallmark of reinvesting knowledge and experience. Presenters are renowned both statewide and nationally, or are rehabilitation professionals practicing innovative strategies for assisting consumers. Presenters point practitioners toward more effective ways to obtain desired results and present useful answers to workplace challenges.

FOCUS AREAS: Transition, Employment, Residential Care, Disabilities, Ethics, Management, Special Interest
